

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We gratefully acknowledge the work of our field workers who travelled to remote villages and braved long hours to collect data with diligence and sincerity. Various organizations including members of Coalition of Community Based Organizations on Arsenic extended help. Our special thanks go to Water and Sanitation Program (WSP) whose staff helped us cleaning and analyzing our database. We appreciate excellent service provided by the staff of Probe News Agency who printed this document under extreme time constraint.